

I am in favor of restoring full and unconditional access to the three D.C. airports currently restricted by SFAR 94 to all general aviation pilots. I fully support AOPA's position that it is vital to the health of the G.A. industry that all public airports remain accessible to all certificated pilots.